The government has conceived the idea that the Filipinos themselves will make good guards and police. This plan has been adopted on a small scale by forming the Macabebes into scouting parties. They have proved efficient scouts, and have on several occasions whipped the tribesmen who were fighting us. In the British empire of India there are natives who make excellent soldiers, and it may be that certain tribes among the Philippine Islanders are of superior intelligence and can be trusted.

GALVESTON will be raised again by the resources of her own citizens. It is stated that outside capital will not be required. The site will be the same, as a large sum, over seven millions, has been expended in jetties to maintain her trade. Notwithstanding their losses the citizens of Galveston are confident of rebuilding their city themselves, without enlisting aid of the capitalist. Considering the danger attending the investment of capital in that city it would probably be difficult to procure money from outside sources in any quantity.

TAKING into consideration the number of miners belonging to the unions in the anthracite coal region who are on strike, and considering that the union funds on hand amount to $450,000 the undertaking is likely to entail a period of suffering for the union men, although those funds will be augmented by funds supplied by sympathetic unions, and by subscriptions. The number of persons deprived of income will be 500,000, thus the strike will be far reaching in its effects, and many innocent women and children will necessarily become dependent upon help received from outside sources.

It is remarkable that Abdul Hamid, Sultan of Turkey, the same sultan who has been keeping all Europe on the anxious seat for years, whose soldiers have butchered Armenians and who just at present happens to owe the United States a sum of money which he has studiously forbore to pay, is the same Abdul Hamid whose silver jubilee was celebrated Saturday. The nations sent him letters of congratulation. Kaiser Wilhelm wrote him a touching message and Great Britain illuminated a fleet in his honor. In Washington Turks and Americans sat down to a gorgeous anniversary dinner at the Turkish legation. Truly the bonds of polite diplomacy are bands of steel.

The Primary Elections.

BISBEE, Ariz., Sept. 19.

EDITOR REVIEW:—There are two calls published in your paper for primary elections, one by the democrats, to be held on the 27th ultimo, stating no hours when the election shall be opened—[I presume that it means from 6 to 6]—the other by the republicans on the 28th, to be opened at 10 a. m. and closing at 7 p. m. Thus giving the miners an opportunity to express their choice for delegates to the county convention, as well as their choice for local offices. You will readily see that if the democratic primary is held from 6 to 6 the democratic miners will virtually be disfranchised as voters at the primary. Is this just or fair?

A DEMOCRAT.
